ANTONIO SERRANO & KAELE JIMÉNEZ

JAZZ CALÓ

Inspired by the great Flamenco Jazz duos such as Paco de Lucía & John McLaughlin, Tomatito & Michel Camilo or Chano Domínguez & Javier Colina, Antonio Serrano puts all his knowledge and experience in the genre to present together with the young piano talent Kaele Jiménez a duo that exudes freshness, emotion and virtuosity around a music that brings together the majesty of flamenco with the freedom and creativity of jazz.

EME EME PROJECT

EME-EME-PROJECT, a jazz, soul, R&B, and hip-hop quintet led by flautist Marta Mansilla, presents the music from their new album, "MUTATIS MUTANDIS," a blend of avant-garde jazz and urban styles, creating a unique and original identity that has positioned them as one of the most prominent groups on the Spanish scene. Winners of the CLINTON Award for Best Group in 2023 with their debut album, PACEMAKER, they have performed at more than 60 international festivals, including the Vitoria Jazz Festival and Las Noches del Botánico in Madrid, among others. Acclaimed by the press and the public, they invite us to this presentation at Jazzahead alongside with At.One on vocals, David Sancho on piano and keyboards, Jesús Caparrós on bass, Rodrigo Ballesteros on drums, and Marta Mansilla on flute, rapper, and composer of all the tracks.

TRINIDAD JIMÉNEZ TRÍO

Trinidad Jiménez is one of the most representative musicians of the new flamenco jazz generation in Spain. In her latest project Eléctrica, the Andalusian flutist and composer expands her artistry towards contemporary jazz while remaining deeply connected to the flamenco influences that inspire her. With a mix of keyboards, synthesizers, drums, effects pedals, and the flute, her music creates an eclectic space where expressiveness takes center stage. Trinidad Jiménez (fl), David Sancho (p), Fran Gayo (dr).

SEDAJAZZ

Since its founding in 1991 as a collective of independent musicians in the small Valencian town of Sedavi, Sedajazz has come a long way. Sedajazz has been experienced as a meeting place for creating jazz—a workshop of continuous learning where we have poured our hearts and souls. Today, Sedajazz has evolved into a music management company offering a roster of over a hundred professional musicians who have trained in direct contact with the best of international jazz.

Under various formats—big band, ensemble, dixieland, marching band, orchestra, string groups, trios, quartets, and more—the Sedajazz collective offers a wide range of sounds and performances. This versatility has led specialists and jazz enthusiasts alike to consider it one of the best and most complete jazz ensembles on the European scene today.

Activity: artist management and promotion, international booking, education
