ÍÑIGO QUINTERO

Íñigo Quintero made history by becoming the first Spanish solo artist to reach Number 1 on Spotify's Global Top 50 in fall 2023 with his single Si No Estás. Following this success, debut EP Es Solo Música was released in April 2024, leading Íñigo to tour throughout Europe, UK and Latam early 2025! London, Paris, Berlin, Sao Paulo, Buenos Aires, Bogotá...to name a few with many of them being Sold Out. His unique blend of pop with piano-driven elements, which adds depth and emotional resonance to his music. Influenced by artists like Dani Fernández and James Arthur, his songs are characterized by raw emotion and authenticity, making his sound instantly recognizable.

LAS NINYAS DEL CORRO

Laüra Bonsai and Felinna Vallejo, from the outskirts of Barcelona, found their voice in rhythm and poetry to share personal stories and the realities of Bon Pastor and Sant Adrià. Since 2015, they've been one of the most explosive duos in the genre. After their debut album Onna-Bugeisha, they launched their second full-length album, Bitches in Business, establishing their presence in both Spanish and international scenes. Currently touring with this project, their mainly rap style also blends R&B. With high-profile collaborations, electrifying festival performances, and respect within the Spanish rap scene, Las Ninyas deliver raw power, class, and style.

MUERDO

Muerdo, from Murcia, Spain, is a singer, composer, and poet whose music blends reggae, pop, folk, funk, and hip-hop with socially conscious lyrics. Debuting in 2011 with Flores entre el Acero, he gained recognition with Tocando Tierra (2013), produced by Amparo Sánchez. His albums Viento Sur (2015), featuring El Kanka and Pascuala Ilabaca, and La Mano en el Fuego (2018) mark his evolving style. His recent works, La Sangre del Mundo (2021) and Sinvergüenza (2024), showcase his maturity and social critique. The latest album's title track features Cuban legend Eliades Ochoa, highlighting his ongoing musical growth.
