His music moves between tradition and contemporary expression, creating a distinctive Mediterranean sound that resonates across jazz, classical and world music contexts. His latest album Alborada (2025) marks a new stage in his artistic development. Romero has performed internationally at venues such as Lincoln Center and the Kennedy Center (USA), Cankarjev dom (Ljubljana) and Palais Montcalm (Québec), building a growing presence in the global contemporary acoustic scene.

TRILOG

TRILOG is a trio where flamenco, jazz, and Hindustani music meet in spontaneous conversation. Formed by flutist and bansuri player Lara Wong, flamenco guitarist Melón Jiménez, and tabla player Chaitanya Natu, the project traces flamenco's nomadic path from India to the Mediterranean.

Created in Spain in 2025 by artists from Canada, Spain, and India, TRILOG builds on the flamenco-jazz work of Wong and Jiménez by incorporating the Indian tabla. Lara is a pioneer of the bansuri in flamenco and winner of the Filón Minero Award, Melón toured with Anoushka Shankar, and Chaitanya came to Spain drawn by flamenco while studying at Berklee Valencia. Their debut album will be released in fall 2026.
